China Reporting and Compliance Systems: Key Considerations

Preparing for China’s 3-tier track and trace reporting system and complex data requirements will be a challenge for pharmaceutical manufacturers and importers, wholesale distributors, and hospitals and healthcare systems. With the first intermediate compliance deadline scheduled for December 31, 2020, companies need to decide which drug traceability system provider gives them the greatest flexibility as they plan their China serialization strategy.

Watch this short excerpt from our recent webinar, China's Technical Requirements and Compliance Deadlines: What You Need to Know Now, to learn more and to understand key considerations for choosing the right solution partner.
