RESOURCES

Home
Resources
Resource Center

Biologically Active Food Supplements: Russia Compliance Deadlines and TraceLink Solution Overview

A complete overview of Russia's new serialization and reporting requirements for food supplements.

Russia has passed new serialization and reporting requirements for biologically active food supplements distributed in the country. Now, three critical compliance deadlines are coming up, each requiring a new set of sophisticated capabilities for implementing unit-level traceability. Will you be ready in time?

© TraceLink Inc. 2009 - 2025 All Rights Reserved

Download our new infographic to get a complete roadmap for meeting these new compliance requirements ahead of the deadlines. You'll learn:

- What is the law and when do the deadlines take effect?
- What capabilities do you need to achieve compliance?
- What is the fastest, most economical way to meet the requirements at scale?

Download Infographic

Want to dive deeper? Register for our upcoming webinar on Russia's new compliance requirements to get best practices and insight directly from the compliance experts at TraceLink.

InfographicRussia Biologically Active Food SupplementsRegulatory/Compliance
Attend our Russia food supplements compliance webinar!
Fill out the form to register now.

Thank you! You'll receive an email with details on how to watch. Enjoy the webinar.

© TraceLink Inc. 2009 - 2025 All Rights Reserved