Meet with TraceLink at the NACDS Total Store Expo

The NACDS Total Store Expo is the industry's largest gathering of retailers and suppliers across health and wellness. Schedule time with TraceLink to learn how intelligent orchestration across your end-to-end supply chain enables pharmacy chains to streamline a wide range of supply and procurement processes—including the ability to digitalize and automate procure-to-pay.

By eliminating manual steps, increasing visibility into supplier inventory and deliveries, and automating the flow of orders and invoices, TraceLink helps you ensure timely supplier delivery, reduce errors, and capture prompt pay discounts.

Why Pharmacies Should Meet with TraceLink

- Automate Order and Invoice Workflows With All Suppliers:

Streamline the entire procure-to-pay process with digital transactions that eliminate manual entry, reduce errors, and improve collaboration with your supplier base.

- Capture Early Payment Discounts:

Ensure accurate, timely invoicing and payment to take full advantage of prompt pay terms and protect margin.

- Enable and Digitalize Direct Buy With Manufacturers:

Simplify and automate procurement workflows to improve efficiency and reliability for direct buy commercial relationships with manufacturers.

- Quickly Onboard and Access New Suppliers:

Improve agility and eliminate integration delays with TraceLink's multi-modal, network-based model—reducing complexity and speeding supplier onboarding.

- Reconcile DSCSA Data With Business Transactions:

Link serialized compliance data with order and invoice records to support secure, efficient operations and meet regulatory requirements.

Why Suppliers Should Meet with TraceLink

If you're a manufacturer or distributor selling into pharmacy chains, TraceLink helps you digitalize your order-to-cash processes—improving order accuracy, speeding fulfillment, enhancing customer service, and growing new revenue opportunities.
