

RESOURCES

Home

How to Use Continuous Improvement Programs to Reduce Supply Chain Disruptions - Video

Supply Chain Issue Management Solves Key Process Challenges

Key Challenges:

- Damaged Goods
- Late Shipments
- Out-of-Spec
- Material Shortages
- Non Compliant
- Missing Documentation

tracelink
Supply Chain Issue Management

Your Company

- Supply Chain ERP
- Supplier Management SRM
- Logistics TMS
- Manufacturing MES

Suppliers & Partners

- Supply Chain ERP
- Supplier Management SRM
- Logistics TMS
- Manufacturing MES

A Better Way To Resolve Issues

- Management has real time visibility into what is happening...right now
- Complete history of previous resolutions and recurring issues
- Prioritization, due dates, severity – everyone on the same page
- The right teams, accountability, assignments, ownership, experts
- Facts and information for assessment and decision making

Supply Chain Issue Management bridges the gaps between companies, systems, people, & process

© 2021 TraceLink, Inc. All rights reserved.

tracelink.

Join TraceLink and Azul Partners, a leading supply chain and procurement consulting firm, for this on-demand webinar and learn the key steps your team can take to continually improve supply chain visibility and mitigate the impact of supply chain disruptions. You'll get expert advice on how to use the newest digital supply chain issue management technology to identify recurring issues that make your supply chain vulnerable to disruptions. You'll also learn how manufacturers can use continuous business process improvement methodologies like Six Sigma to achieve up to a 50% reduction in repeat deviations and up to a 97% reduction in supply chain disruptions.

Video

DSCSA for Manufacturers

Subscribe to Agile Supply Chain Insights

Subscribe to stay informed with the latest patient-centric agile supply chain thought leadership content.